(b) is absent without leave of the Board for more than three consecutive meetings of the Board.

9. Resignation of office by member and filling up casual vacancies.-(1) Any member other than an official member may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing, to the Government, and on such resignation being accepted, shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

(2) A casual vacancy in the office of a member may be filled up, as soon as may be, by the Government and a member so appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the member whose place he fills.

10. Power to appoint committees.-(1) For the purpose of advising the Board in the discharge of its functions and in particular for carrying into effect any of the matters specified in sub section (3) of section 17, the Board may constitute one or more committees.

(2) Each committees constituted under sub-section (1) shall consist of atleast one member of the Board.

11. Acts of Board or committee not to be invalidated by informality, vacancy, etc.-No act done or proceeding taken under this Act by the Board or any committee shall be invalidated merely on the ground-

(a) of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the Board or the committee; or

(b) of any defect or irregularity in the appointment of a person acting as a member thereof ;or

(c) of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding not affecting the merits of the case.

12. Functions of the Board.- The functions of the Board shall be the administration of the Fund and such other functions as may be assigned to it by or under this Act.

13. Unpaid accumulations and claims thereto.-(1) All unpaid accumulations shall be deemed to be abandoned property,

(2) Any unpaid accumulation paid to the Board in accordance with the provisions of section 3 shall, on such payment, discharge an employer of his liability to make payment to an employee in respect thereof, but to the extent only of the amount paid to the Board, and the liability to make payment to the employee to the extent aforesaid shall, subject to the succeeding provisions of this section, be deemed to be transferred to the Board

(3) As soon as possible after the payment of any unpaid accumulation is made to the Board, the Board shall by notice-

(a) exhibited on the notice-board of the establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned; and

(b) published in the Gazette, and in such other manner as may be prescribed, regard being had to the amount of the unpaid accumulations; invite claims by employees, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns for any payment due to them.

(4) The notice referred to in sub-section (3) shall be given in the manner aforesaid in June and December of every year, for a period of three years from the date of the payment of the unpaid accumulation to the Board.

(5) If any question arises whether the notice referred to in sub section (3) was given as required by that sub-section and sub section (4), certificate of the Board that it was so given shall be conclusive.

(6) If a claim is received, whether in response to the notices or otherwise, within a period of four years from the date of first publication of the notice in respect of such claim, the Board shall transfer such claim to the authority appointed under section 15 of the payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act 4 of 1936), having jurisdiction over the area in which the establishment is situate, and that authority shall proceed to adjudicate upon and decide such claim.

(7) In hearing any claim referred to in sub-section (6), the authority referred to in that sub-section shall have the powers conferred by the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act 4 of 1936) and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable), specified therein.

(8) If the authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulation in relation to which the claim is made shall cease to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the authority decides are property due, to the employee; and the Board shall make payment accordingly:

Provided that the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the board as unpaid accumulations, in respect of the claim.

(9) If a claim for payment is refused, the employee or his heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as the case may be may, within sixty days from the date of receipt of the order of the authority, prefer an appeal to the District Court.

(10) The decision of the authority, subject to appeal to the District Court, and the decision in appeal of the District Court, shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount, if any.

(11) If no claim is received within the period specified in sub-section (6), or a claim has been refused by the authority, or on appeal by the District Court, then the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall thereafter be deemed to have been transferred to, and form part of, the Fund.

[10]"14. Interest on the employer's and employees' contributions, unpaid accumulations or fines after notice of demand.- (1) If an employer does not pay to the Fund any amount of the employers' and employees' contributions due under section 15 before the date specified in that section or does not pay to the Board any amount of the unpaid accumulations or fines realised from the employees within the time specified by or under, this Act, the commissioner may serve or cause to be served on such employer a notice to pay the amount within the period specified therein, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice

(2) If the employer fails, without reasonable cause, to pay the amount specified in a notice issued under sub-section (1) within the period specified therein, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to that amount, to the Fund or the Board, as the case may be, by way of penalty, simple interest at the rate of nine per cent per annum from the date on which the amount fell due:

Provided that the Government may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the penalty in respect of any period."]

15. Contribution to the Fund by employees and employers.-(1) Every employee shall contribute [11][four rupee] per half year to the Fund and every employer shall in respect of each such employee contribute [12][eight rupees] per half year to the Fund.

(2) Every employer shall pay to the Fund both the employer's contribution and the employee's contribution before the 15th day of July and 15th day of January of every year.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the employer shall be entitled to recover from the employees the employee's contribution by deduction from his wages or in such other manner as may be prescribed, and such deduction shall be deemed to be a deduction authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act 4 of 1936).

16. Grant and advances by Government.-The Government may, from time to time, make grants or advance loans to the Board for the purposes of this Act on such terms and conditions as the Government may, in each case, determine.

Provided that before issuing a notification under this sub-section, the Government shall, by notice, require the Board to show cause within such period as may be specified in the notice why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of the Board.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1) superseding the Board,-

(a) all the members of the Board shall, as from the date of supersession, vacate their offices as such;

(b) all the powers and duties which may, by or under the provision of this Act, be exercised or preformed by or on behalf of the Board and the Chairman shall, during the period of supersession, be exercised and performed by such authority or person as the Government may direct;

(c) all funds and other property vested in the Board shall, during the period of supersession, vest in the authority or person referred to in clause (b); and

(d) all liabilities legally subsisting and enforceable against the Board shall be enforceable against the authority or person referred to in clause (b) to the extent or the funds and properties vested in it or him.

(3) On the expiration of the period of supersession specified in the notification issued under sub-section (1), the Government may-

(a) extend the period of supersession for such further period not exceeding six months as they may consider necessary; or

(b) reconstitute the Board in the manner provided in section 5.

36. Delegation of powers.-(1) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, authorise any authority or officer to exercise any of the power vested in them by or under this Act, except the power to make rules under section 40, and may in like manner withdraw such authority.

(2) The Board may, by general or special order in writing, delegate in the Commissioner or other officer of the Board such of its powers and functions under this Act, except the power to make regulations under section 42, as it may deem necessary, and may in like manner withdraw such authority.

(3) The exercise of any power delegated under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in the order and also to control and revision by the Government or by such officer as may be empowered by the Government in this behalf or, as the case may be, by the Board or such officer as may be empowered by the Board in this behalf.

(4) The Government or the Board, as the case may be, shall also have the power to control and revise the acts and proceedings of any officer empowered under sub-section (3).

37. Members of Board, Commissioner, Inspectors etc., to be public servants.-The members of the Board, the Commissioner, the Finance Officer, Inspectors and all officers and servants of the Board, and all persons entrusted with the execution of any function under this Act, shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (Central) Act 45 of 1860).

38. Protection of action taken in good faith.-(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government or the Board for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

39. Exemption.-The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, exempt any establishment or class of establishments from all or any of the provisions of this Act subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification.

40. Power to make rules.-(1) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for-

(a) the intervals at which or the period within which any of the sums referred to in section 3 shall be paid to the Board or into the Fund, the manner of making such payment and the agency for, and manner of, collection of any such sum;

(b) the manner in which the accounts of the Fund shall be maintained and audited ;

(c) the allowances, if any, payable to the members of the Board ;

(d) the manner in which the employee's contribution may be deducted from his wages ;

(e) the form of notice regarding unpaid accumulations ;

(f) the procedure for making grants from the Fund ;

(g) the procedure for defraying the expenditure incurred in administering the Fund ;

(h) the manner in which the Board shall conduct its business ;

(i) the delegation of the powers and functions of the Board to the Commissioner or other officer of the Board and the conditions and limitations subject to which such powers may be exercised or functions discharged ;

(j) the percentage of the annual income of the Fund beyond which the Board may not spend on the staff and on other administrative expenses ;

(k) the registers and records to be maintained under this Act ;

(l) the publication of the report of the activities financed from the Fund together with a statement of receipts and expenditure of the Fund and statement of accounts ;

(m) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.

41. Rules and notifications to be laid before the Legislative Assembly.-Every rule made and every notification issued under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid, or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rule or notification or decides that the rule or notification should not be made or issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.

42. Power to make regulations.-(1) The Board may, by notification in the Gazette, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for-

(a) the procedure in regard to the transaction of business at the meetings of the Board including the quorum;

(b) the purposes for which and the manner in which temporary association of persons may be made ;

(c) the duties, functions and the terms and conditions of service of the members of the committees ;

(d) the manner in which and the form in which the accounts of the Board shall be maintained ;

(e) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed by regulations.

(3) No regulation or its cancellation or modification shall have effect unless the same is approved by the Government.

(4) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, rescind any regulation made under this section and, thereupon, the regulation shall cease to have effect.

43. Amendment of section 8, Central Act 4 of 1936.-In section 8 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act 4 of 1936), in its application to the State of Kerala, in subsection (8), before the Explanation, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :-

"Provided that in the case of any establishment to which the Kerala Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1975, applies all such relations shall be paid into the fund constituted under that Act."
